What sets the Angels apart?

Executive Level of Service

You will always feel like a priority to us. Our goal is to keep you informed and prepared for each season of the planning journey. There will never be a question of what to expect from the Angels.

All clients receive a Welcome Meeting

Communication is key to understanding the planning partnership ahead. It is so important to us to collect where you are in your planning process and ensure you are off to a great start, regardless of the level of service you elect. Therefore, our very first step is to set up a time to get to know you better and review our Welcome Packet (which can be done in-person -OR- over the phone).

We always come as a Team

There will never be less than two Angels serving you on your wedding day. There are many moving parts to ensure a flawless production. And it is our every intent to expect perfection. Whether you have a small/intimate backyard wedding or a 600+ guest extraordinaire, rest assured the Angels will be there every step of the way.

We are always the 1st to arrive and the Last to leave

From the moment you arrive on wedding day to when we see you off in your get-away, one of our Angels will be present to greet and pamper you from start to finish. We are also the last to leave at the end of the evening. There are many levels of service we like to ensure our clients receive. And the only way to do this is to be present~
